Holly Kerr Forsyth : Remembered Gardens: Eight Women and Their Visions of an Australian Landscape before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Remembered Gardens: Eight Women and Their Visions of an Australian Landscape:

A commemoration of more than two centuries of gardening in Australia, this tribute focuses on eight extraordinary women who helped establish the country's rich gardening heritage. Their challenging and sometimes tragic lives are set against the backdrop of their gardens, which provided them with sanctuary and a creative outlet during troubled times.

About the Author Holly Kerr Forsyth is a writer for The Weekend Australian with a PhD in history from the University of New South Wales.
