Daniel D. Reiff : Small Georgian Houses in England and Virginia: Origins and Development Through the 1750s before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Small Georgian Houses in England and Virginia: Origins and Development Through the 1750s:

This is the first study which has seriously and thoroughly examined the English post-Renaissance vernacular background for the famous Georgian houses of Virginia (ca. 1710-1760), and related them exhaustively to their American counter-parts.
