Building Dreams: Tailor-made Homes by Vlassak Verhulst (English and French Edition):

Showcases 11 prestigious projects, each with a timeless design, authentic materials and a certain 'savoir-faire' Enter a world where creativity and knowledge are the key words, and traditional skills and modern techniques go hand in hand. The Cotswold cottage, the Normandy mansion, the classical English Manor House, the Long Island style and the geometrical forms of modern architecture... Vlassak Verhulst was one of the first to explore these styles. He introduced them - but more importantly, he gave them a soul. Driven by his ambition to create houses that have charm, class, respect for authenticity and purity, Verhulst has become a name to look out for in the field of residential design. Text in English, French, and Dutch.

About the Author Jorg Brauer is an award winning photographer. Vlassak Verhulst is a company that has been building exclusive houses since the seventies.
