Charles Thonger : The Book of Garden Furniture (Classic Reprint) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Book of Garden Furniture (Classic Reprint):

A mong garden structures dealt with in this book are summer-houses, arbours, pergolas, bridges, and fencing of various descriptions. As these, strictly speaking, do not come under the general heading of garden furniture, it may be well to explain that, in order to prevent a cumbersome and lengthy title, I have taken the liberty of including them as such. My obligations are due to Loudon s Encyclopaedia of Gardening for information respecting the early employment of furniture in gardens of various countries. I beg also to offer my hearty acknowledgments to Mr. White of the Pyghle, Bedford, to Messrs. Boulton Paul of Norwich, to Messrs. Doulton of Lambeth, and to Messrs. Pulham Son, Broxbourne, for so kindly placing their very admirable series of sketches and photographs at my disposal. C. T.
