The Best Windsor Chairmaking BookBy A CustomerDrew has spent years studying, building, and designing Windsor chairs. His book goes into great depth on Windsor chairmaking history, styles, and constructing techniques. He takes you step by step until the chair is fully completed. One needs to read and reread to fully grasp all given details on chairmaking. He is perhaps the only chairmaker which has spent the time getting all the information one needs to determine such custom features as setting the seat and leg angles for each type of chair made to fit your needs. You will be sure to try your hand at making your own Windsor after reading Drew's book.

Ranks as one of the most comprehensive handbooks for handcrafting Windsor and post-and-rung chairs. There are plans and materials lists for a variety of post-and-rung and Windsor chairs, and galleries of old and contemporary chairs...also plans for a shaving horse, a spring-pole lathe, and two simple wood kilns.
