Lisa Lovatt-Smith, Lisa Smith-Lovatt : The Fashion House: Inside the Homes of Leading Designers before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Fashion House: Inside the Homes of Leading Designers:

From New York to Paris, this text looks at the apartments of 25 international designers, providing a glimpse of their lives beyond the catwalk and an insight into each designer's creative approach. Those opening their doors include, Givenchy, Anouska Hempel, Yves St Laurent and Lagerfeld. Each home tells a story, from Armani's villa - recreating childhood memories of the simple life, to Versace's palazzo - a sumptuous backdrop to his art collection. Unlike their fashion collections which are reinvented each season, their homes are spaces which have evolved to reflect the life of their owners.

From Library Journal Lovatt-Smith here peeks into the homes of 20 international fashion designers. The beautiful photographs illustrate a variety of residential styles, from the simplicity of Kenzo to the opulence of Versace, suggesting that the fashion design style of each is reflected in their living style. The text provides a brief biography as well as descriptions of the designers' approach to both fashion and interior design that makes this book a welcome addition to both fashion and interior design collections.
